

DV 101

A Domestic Violence Workshop for Faith Leaders

Domestic violence introduces unique challenges into interpersonal relationships for pastors and faith leaders to address. Most survivors of domestic violence not only experience a physical or emotional crisis but a spiritual crisis as well. How can church leaders respond when a survivor is seeking help?

This is a unique training opportunity for faith leaders to learn how to safely support survivors of domestic violence.

This training will address:

Domestic Violence 101

- The do's and don'ts when speaking to survivors and abusers
- Barriers survivors face when attempting to leave
- What can faith leaders do?

When: January 30, 2016

Registration from 9:30-10

Training from 10-1

Where: First Community Church of God

located at 1330 Cooper Foster Park Road
Lorain, OH 44053.

- There is no cost for this event
- Brunch will be provided
- CEU's Provided

RSVP today to Rachel at racheldotson089@gmail.com

Presented by:

The Lorain County Domestic Violence Task Force Subcommittee on Outreach to the Faith Community:

To open eyes that are blind, to free captives from prison and to release from the dungeon those who sit in darkness. Isaiah 42:7